OUR ADVICE TO DEALERS

As in automobiles, products in the electric industry are also prone to wear and tear and in a few cases damages are irreversible. This situation is majorly due to inline supply and partially due to faulty operation. This is accepted - both by the manufacturer and all in the channel. Still to support and satisfy the consumer- the dealer does repair and, in some cases, replace the spares free of cost. Hence, we advise you to add a percent or two to your costing. From that you can order and keep sufficient stock of contactor spares, relays and panel accessories and be ready to replace them with the faulty one's.
